

---

Sept. 14 • 7:00 pm

Calvary Baptist Church
Woodward Hall
755 8th St NW
Washington, DC 20001

The International Committee for Peace, Justice and Dignity and the Institute for Policy Studies present:

“In Cuba Health Care is a Human Right, why not in the United States”

A discussion bridging 90 miles and 58 years

Music by Crank LuKongo

Special Guest: Jose Ramón Cabañas, Cuban Ambassador to the United States

Representative from National Nurses United

Panel Discussion

Stephen Kimber, Moderator

Canadian journalism professor
University of King’s College in Halifax, Nova Scotia
Author, “What Lies Across the Water, the Real Story of the Cuban Five”

Panelists:

Dr. Jesus de los Santo Reno Cespedes

Head of Pediatrics at the National Institute of Oncology and Radiology
Havana, Cuba

Eduardo Gonzales Copello,

Nurse Practitioner, STD, HIV/AIDS, and Leprosy specialist
Worked in West Africa with Ebola victims, 2014

U.S. Graduates from the Latin American School of Medicine

Dr. Margaret Flowers,

Co-Director of Popular Resistance,
Health Over Profit for Everyone Campaign Coordinator,

This event is part of the Days of Actions Against the Blockade, 2017 for more information visit: <http://theinternationalcommittee.org/>